Berry Hill Weekly Buzz

Week Ending October 16, 2015
Second Grade Writers

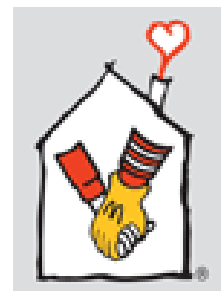

Berry Hill Second Graders continued an in-depth study of Author Ezra Jack Keats. After reading several of his picture books, the students discovered different writing techniques that this author uses to make his stories come alive! The students then worked on writing small moment stories using several of his techniques. They used their decision making talents to choose the story they would like to publish. Second graders are so excited to share their finished pieces!

The Syosset Fire Department visited Berry Hill Kindergarteners on Wednesday, October 14, 2015 in order to commemorate Fire Prevention Month. Our kindergarteners learned about their community fire department as well as the importance of fire safety.

Berry Hill Student Council Collection for Ronald McDonald House of Long Island

Berry Hill Student Council is holding a collection for Ronald McDonald House of Long Island during the entire month of October. During their Student Council Meetings, students created posters in order to promote the collection to the Berry Hill Learning Community. The posters are currently being displayed throughout our hallways. As items are donated, students are eagerly bagging them for delivery. Please see the reverse side of this "Buzz" for ways Berry Hill families can support this collection.

Have a wonderful weekend!
Sincerely,

Mrs. Joanne Mannion, Principal
