Kind Kindergarteners Know the Importance of Patience

Berry Hill continues our PRIDE (Patience, Respect, Integrity, Dignity and Empathy) Character Education Program by celebrating Patience during the month of January. Berry Hill Kind Kindergarteners enjoyed a read aloud of The Important Book by Margaret Wise Brown and wrote about the important times they exhibited patience at home or in school. They displayed their writing on our Welcoming Bulletin Board as a reminder to our Berry Hill Learning Community of the ways to be patient. Thank you to our kindergarten teachers for engaging our students in this meaningful and relevant writing experience.
