Sensational Second Grade Authors

This week, Berry Hill Sensational Second Graders finished an in-depth study of author Ezra Jack Keats. After reading several of his picture books, the students discovered the many different crafts this author uses to make his stories come alive! The students then worked on small moment stories using several of his writing techniques. They used their Decision Making Talent to choose the story they would like to publish. Our Sensational Second Graders' final pieces are proudly hanging outside their classrooms for all to enjoy!
