I am Lovable And Capable

Berry Hill Fantastic Fourth Graders participated in a presentation by Ms. Alena Reisman, our School Psychologist and Ms. Patricia Campbell, our District Social Worker that included an activity to understand the effects our actions, no matter how small, have on others. Fourth graders learned that we each wear an invisible sign that represents a positive self-concept and it is our “ILAC” sign, “I am Lovable And Capable.” Our “ILAC” sign gets torn away with each “put down” we encounter resulting in lower self-esteem. The presentation focused on understanding how our “ILAC” sign constantly changes and how to make the “ILAC” signs of others become whole again.
