During Regents Exams, New York State regulations state:

No student may enter after or leave before 10:00 a.m. in the morning session.

No student may enter after or leave before 2:00 p.m. in the morning session.

CONFLICTS: All exam conflicts will be taken in the library. Students with conflicts should inform the teachers involved and decide in what order the exams will be taken.

Teachers will arrange to leave all exams in the library in an envelope with the date, session, student's name, name of subject, and the teacher's name printed clearly on the envelope. For exam security reasons, exams are not to be left in teacher mailboxes. Completed exams will be left by the proctors in the library and should be picked up by each individual.
